4. Termination of contract at any University residence may result in denial of housing at any UC Santa Cruz housing facility, on or off campus.

B. Request for Cancellation or Termination by Student: Requests for cancellation of this contract by Student may be granted only under the conditions listed below:

1. Student graduates.

Requests for cancellation of this contract by Student ordinarily will be granted without the $100 cancellation fee only under the conditions listed above (B., 1-4) and only during the following quarterly filing periods:

Filing Dates: Effective Dates:
November 1-8, 2006 December 8, 2006

In this case, Student may be charged a per diem rent for any period of residence beyond this date.

G. Waivers: Any waiver or non-enforcement by University of any term or condition of this agreement shall not constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other term or condition of this agreement. Acceptance by University of any rental payment after Student’s breach of any provision of this contract agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of such provision or any prior or subsequent breach of any provision, other than Student’s failure to make timely payment of the housing payment so accepted, whether or not University knew of the prior breach at the time such payment was accepted.

H. Housing Appeals Process: In the event that a request for Housing Contract cancellation/modification is denied at Student’s assigned University residence, Student may request a review by the Housing Appeals Board.

VIII. Payment and Refunds

A. Advance Housing Fee

1. A $150 advance housing fee is required in order to apply for University housing. If Student accepts occupancy, the advance fee will be applied to the residence rate.

a. New students pay the $150 fee at the time they complete the online process to accept the offer of admission to UC Santa Cruz.

b. Continuing students may submit an online application with a deferment of the $150 advance housing fee. 2. Failure to Take Occupancy: If Student elects not to take occupancy of a reserved housing space, University, according to the schedule and circumstances set forth below, shall retain all or part of the advance housing fee. e. If cancellation is completed after August 31, 2006, no portion of the $150 fee will be refunded and a $50 late notification fee may be charged. ($200 will be billed if $150 has been deferred.)

f. Students with deferments will be billed for the non-refundable portion of the advance housing fee as noted above.

g. There is no graduated billing schedule for winter and spring quarter. Students who cancel a reserved housing space in winter and/or spring quarter will be charged the full $150 advance housing fee.

Emergency Contact Information: In order to communicate necessary information to a parent or legal guardian in an emergency situation (e.g., earthquake, fire, flood, civil disturbance), Student is expected to provide valid emergency contact information through the online Student Portal (my.ucsc.edu) and to keep information current.

Student will be billed for all or part of the $150 advance housing fee if space is offered and Student fails to take occupancy.

B. Residence Rate

1. Proration: The residence rate is charged in advance of each academic quarter. If Student takes late occupancy of a space during the first two weeks of the quarter, no residence rate adjustment shall be made. If Student takes occupancy after the first two weeks of the quarter, a residence rate adjustment shall be made if Student was scheduled to commence occupancy on the later date or such late occupancy and residence rate adjustment has been approved in writing by University.

2. Abandonment: A portion of the residence rate may be refundable if the contract is terminated for causes pursuant to Paragraph VII. In the event Student abandons the residence, Student shall be liable for the full residence rate for the balance of the academic year, as well as any other costs incurred by University as a result of such abandonment, unless and to the extent that a replacement Student is assigned to the same space and/or University has waived such liability in writing.

3. Payment of Housing Charges: The residence rate is due and payable according to the attached schedule. Monthly billing statements are mailed to all students having unpaid University charges.

Billing and Payment

Payment Plan Options

The Campus Housing Office offers two types of Housing Payment Plans—each at no additional charge—to pay quarterly housing fees. Unless a payment plan is requested, housing charges are billed and full payment is due on a quarterly basis.

A payment plan is an amendment to your housing contract, and will not alter the length of your contract nor cause you to pay for quarter breaks. Both payment plans require you to make payments within each quarter’s payment deadlines. Either payment plan will be denied if you have unpaid housing charges from a previous quarter, or if your Financial Aid award/s pays your housing charges in full.

Two Types of Payment Plans

1) The Standard Monthly Payment Plan gives you the option to pay your housing charges in nine monthly, rather than three quarterly, installments. If you apply for this payment plan, it is effective for the remainder of the academic year. Monthly installments are based on your room and board assignment and are rounded to the nearest dollar to equal the quarterly total (please refer to rate table).

2) The Personalized Payment Plan is tailored to meet your individual needs. Personalized payment plans are usually based on delayed financial aid disbursement, your employment pay schedule, etc.

Payment Plan Application Process

1) To apply for a Standard Monthly Payment Plan simply check the “Monthly Housing Payment Plan” option on your Student Housing Online application.

2) To apply for a Personalized Payment Plan, contact the Campus Housing Office by the first payment deadline of each quarter (a visit to our office is preferred). Please be prepared to discuss the circumstances that prevent you from making your payment by the due date.

Billing and Payment Deadlines

You are usually billed the first week of each month. If you do not receive a billing statement—for whatever reason—you are still obligated to make payments by the deadline. If you receive a billing statement and no housing charges are posted on your account, please call our office right away. Please refer to the rate table on back page for exact due dates.

It is your responsibility to keep the Campus Housing Office informed of any payment delays—no matter what the source of money (financial aid, outside scholarship, personal funds, etc.). Our preference is to work with you if you are having difficulty meeting a payment deadline. A deferment of the due date, without a late fee, may be approved if you contact us prior to the payment deadline.

Late Fees

Late fees are assessed if payment is not posted to your account by the established due date of each quarter (each month if signed up for a payment plan). Each late fee is $25. This is not a postmark deadline, so please allow sufficient time for mailing. When the due date falls on a weekend or holiday, payments are due the next working day.

Financial Aid Recipients

If you receive financial aid, your award/s will be credited directly to your student account. Financial aid awards are credited to the registration fees first, and any remaining award/s are then credited to your housing charges.

The Campus Housing Office will determine whether you are eligible for the Standard Monthly Payment Plan. If your award/s exceed the standard monthly housing charges, you are not eligible for the plan. We will send you a notice of this action and offer you a Personalized Payment Plan to pay any remaining balance due.
